

Stephanie Lippman, Psy.D.
12008 South Shore Boulevard, Suite 207
Wellington, FL 33414
Phone: (561) 207-7625
E-mail: stephanielippman@psywellness.com

Educational History

- 2011 Psy.D., Clinical Psychology
 Florida School of Professional Psychology at Argosy University, Tampa
- 2007 M.A., Clinical Psychology
 Florida School of Professional Psychology at Argosy University, Tampa
- 2003 B.A. with Honors, Summa Cum Laude, Psychology
 York University, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Licensure

Florida license to practice psychology: #PY 8639.

Work Experience

- 2012-present Psychologist, Co-Founder/Owner
 Psychological Wellness Center
 Provide individual, group, family, and couples therapy; psychological and psychoeducational evaluation; consultation; media consultation; human resources, accounting, program development, marketing.
- 2011-2012 Postdoctoral Resident in Clinical Psychology, Education Center
 Palm Beach County Youth Affairs Division, West Palm Beach, FL
 Provided individual and family psychotherapy to children, adolescents and adults. Provided individual parent education. Conducted psychological evaluations as well consultation, program development, and professional training.

Supervised Clinical Experience

- 2008-2009 Predoctoral Internship, Second Rotation, Youth Service Bureau
 Palm Beach County Youth Affairs Division, West Palm Beach, FL
 Conducted psychological assessments, parent education groups, and brief family therapy to children, adolescents, and their families in a community based, outpatient setting.
- Predoctoral Internship, First Rotation, Highridge Family Center
 Palm Beach County Youth Affairs Division, West Palm Beach, FL
 Provided individual, family and group therapy and developed program curriculum in a residential facility for children and adolescents at risk for entering into the Florida Department of Juvenile Justice

- 2007-2008 Psychology Trainee, Career and Counseling Center
University of South Florida, St. Petersburg, FL
Provided individual and group therapy to the university's students. Teaching and administering biofeedback and relaxation programs. Also developed and implemented campus-wide outreach programs.
- 2007-2008 Psychology Trainee, Florida Center for Survivors of Torture
Clearwater, Florida
Provided in-center and in-home individual and couples therapy to survivors of political torture holding a refugee status, or to those seeking political asylum. Duties also include facilitating group therapy with children from the Youth Refugee program and implementing educational outreach with the children's elementary school teachers.
- 2006-2007 Psychology Trainee, Family Psychological Services of Palm Harbor
Palm Harbor, Florida
Conducted psychological assessments in a busy private practice with nine providers. Populations included children, adolescents, college children, adults and older adults. Types of evaluations conducted included learning disability, personality, gifted, diagnostic, and competency.

Papers/Posters

Lippman, S. (04/2011). Validity of the Borderline Personality Disorder Diagnosis in Adolescents. Dissertation defense at Florida School for Professional Psychology at Argosy University, Tampa.

Lippman, S., Eisner, J. & Cicconetti, C. (April 2003). The Influence of Musical Tempo on the Behavior of Bookstore Shoppers. Presented at York University's annual poster presentation conference.

Professional Presentations

New Developments in Traumatic Stress
Positive Parenting Skills
Dialectical Behavior Therapy
Borderline Personality Disorder
Borderline Personality Disorder in Adolescents
Nonverbal Learning Disability (NLD)

Professional Memberships

American Psychological Association (APA)
Florida Psychological Association (FPA)

References

Available upon request